

AFRICAN CONTENT MOVEMENT

THE FUTURE IS IN YOUR HANDS

CORNER HOUSE
1ST FLOOR
77 COMMISSIONER STREET
JOHANNESBURG
2001

To all media:

African Content Movement (ACM) will on Sunday 17 March 2019 host all nominated candidates who will be representing the Movement in Parliament and all provincial legislatures.

The gathering will be used to ascertain the movement's position on 90% ownership in every sector of the economy and local content. ACM has successfully submitted a list of candidates ahead of the deadline set out by the Independent Electoral Commission of South Africa (IEC). The composition of the list is fairly representative of sectors including people living with disabilities, women and youth.

Media is invited to cover an open session to be address by President Hlaudi Motsoeneng as follows:

Venue: Crown Gardens Recreation Centre

Time: 11AM- 12PM

Date: 17 March 2019

Address: Corner Ulster Cres & Mourne Ave

This will also be an opportunity for candidate to have further engagement with the organisation's top officials who will be in attendance.

The Movement will launch its Elections Manifesto on Saturday 6 April 2019 in Durban. All members and supporters from all provinces will converge in Durban to witness the unveiling of a Plan of Action to growth the South African economy, end joblessness, poverty, and inequalities.

The Future Is In Your Hands!

Issued by African Content Movement.

Enquiries

Head of Communications

Phuti Mosomane

Tell: 011 492 7172/ 076 191 0405

National Media Liaison Officer

Sipho Jack

Mobile: 073 8211 568

Website: www.acmovement.org.za

Twitter: @ACMServants

Facebook: The African Content Movement

SECRETARIAT OFFICE CONTACT:

081 333 7491

083 246 8736

EMAIL: info@acmonline.org.za